CONTENTS OF VOLUME LIII.

No. 1. July, 1922.

ORTON, C. R., MCCOLLUM, E. V., and SIMMONDS, NINA. Observations on the presence of the antineuritic substance, water-soluble B, in chlorophyll-free plants 1

LEVINE, VICTOR E., MCCOLLUM, E. V., and SIMMONDS, NINA. Glacial acetic acid as a solvent for the antineuritic substance, water-soluble B 7

BRIGGS, A. P. A modification of the Bell-Doisy phosphate method .. 13

ISAACS, M. L. A colorimetric determination of blood chlorides 17

HART, E. B., STEENBOCK, H., HOPPERT, C. A., and HUMPHREY, G. C. Dietary factors influencing calcium assimilation. II. The comparative efficiency of dry and green alfalfa in maintaining calcium and phosphorus equilibrium in milking cows 21

HEIDELBERGER, MICHAEL. A method for the preparation of crystalline oxyhemoglobin 31

SHERMAN, H. C., and MUHLFELD, MARIE. Growth and reproduction upon simplified food supply. II. Influence of food upon mother and young during the lactation period 41

SHERMAN, H. C., and CROCKER, JOSEPHINE. Growth and reproduction upon simplified food supply. III. The efficiency of growth as influenced by the proportion of milk in the diet 49

RANDLES, F. S., and KNUDSON, ARTHUR. The estimation of lipoid phosphoric acid ("lecithin") in blood by application of the Bell and Doisy method for phosphorus 53

DOISY, EDWARD A., EATON, EMILY P., and CHOUKE, K. S. Buffer systems of blood serum 61

FALK, K. GEORGE, NOYES, HELEN MILLER, and SUGIURA, KANEMATSU. Studies on enzyme action. XX. The protease actions of malignant human and rat tumor extracts at different hydrogen ion concentrations and in the presence of various salts 75

BLATHERWICK, N. R., and LONG, M. LOUISA. Studies of urinary acidity. I. Some effects of drinking large amounts of orange juice and sour milk 103

PETERSON, W. H., FRED, E. B., and ANDERSON, J. A. The fermentation of hexoses and related compounds by certain pentose-fermenting bacteria 111

ROBINSON, GUY C. A study of the acetone and butyl alcohol fermentation of various carbohydrates 125

XUM

ATKINSON, H. V., RAPPORT, DAVID, and LUSK, GRAHAM. Animal calorimetry. Twenty-second paper. The production of fat from protein 155
HENNING, B. H. The lipoids of the blood in tuberculosis 167
HILL, ELSIE, and BLOOR, W. R. Fat excretion 171
TERRILL, EDWIN H. On the colorimetric determination of hemoglobin with especial reference to the production of stable standards 179
SCHMIDT, CARL L. A., and CLARK, GUY W. The fate of certain sulfur compounds when fed to the dog 193
HUBBARD, ROGER S., and NICHOLSON, SAMUEL T., JR. The acetonuria of diabetes 209

No. 2. August, 1922.

JONES, D. B., GERSDORFF, C. E. F., JOHNS, C. O., and FINKS, A. J. The proteins of the lima bean, Phaseolus lunatus 231
KRAMER, BENJAMIN, and TISDALL, FREDERICK F. The distribution of sodium, potassium, calcium, and magnesium between the corpuscles and serum of human blood 241
HILLER, ALMA, and VAN SLYKE, DONALD D. A study of certain protein precipitants 253
HASTINGS, A. BAIRD, and VAN SLYKE, DONALD D. The determination of the three dissociation constants of citric acid 269
VAN SLYKE, DONALD D., AUSTIN, J. HAROLD, and CULLEN, GLENN E. The effect of ether anesthesia on the acid-base balance of the blood 277
MCCOLLUM, E. V., SIMMONDS, NINA, BECKER, J. ERNESTINE, and SHIPLEY, P. G. Studies on experimental rickets. XXI. An experimental demonstration of the existence of a vitamine which promotes calcium deposition 293
MCCOLLUM, E. V., SIMMONDS, NINA, and BECKER, J. ERNESTINE. On a type of ophthalmia caused by unsatisfactory relations in the inorganic portion of the diet. An ophthalmia not due to starvation for fat-soluble A, and not curable by its administration 313
HAMMETT, FREDERICK S. Creatinine and creatine in muscle extracts. III. Concerning the presence of enzymes in muscle tissue which have creatine and creatinine as their substrates 323
FALES, HELEN L. An analysis of camel's colostrum 339
STEHLE, R. L., BOURNE, W., and BARBOUR, H. G. Effects of ether anesthesia alone or preceded by morphine upon the alkali metabolism of the dog 341
LEWIS, HOWARD B., and MCGINTY, DANIEL A. The metabolism of sulfur. V. Cysteine as an intermediary product in the metabolism of cystine 349
MCCLURE, WILLIAM B. The adaptation of the pentabromoacetone method to the quantitative determination of citric acid in the urine 357

NEUHAUSEN, B. S., and MARSHALL, E. K., JR. An electrochemical study of the condition of several electrolytes in the blood..... 365
JACKSON, HENRY, JR., and PALMER, WALTER W. A note on the determination of uric acid..... 373
SHERMAN, H. C., and HAWLEY, EDITH. Calcium and phosphorus metabolism in childhood..... 375
DUNN, MAX S., and SCHMIDT, CARL L. A. The influence of position and of temperature upon the reaction of aliphatic amino nitrogen with nitrous acid..... 401
OSBORNE, THOMAS B., WAKEMAN, ALFRED J., and LEAVENWORTH, CHARLES S. The water-soluble constituents of the alfalfa plant. 411
LEVENE, P. A., and MEYER, G. M. Phosphoric esters of some substituted glucoses and their rate of hydrolysis..... 431
LEVENE, P. A., and MEYER, G. M. Sulfuric esters of some substituted glucoses and their rate of hydrolysis..... 437
LEVENE, P. A. Preparation and analysis of animal nucleic acid.... 441
LEVENE, P. A. Benzylidene-ethyl-chitosaminate and benzylidene-ethyl-diazogluconate (mannonate)..... 449
SHIPLE, GEORGE J., and SHERWIN, CARL P. The fate of some of the phenylacetylated amino-acids in the animal organism..... 463
HOWE, PAUL E. The relation between age and the concentration of protein fractions in the blood of the calf and cow..... 479
VICKERY, HUBERT BRADFORD. The rate of hydrolysis of wheat gliadin. 495
SJOLLEMA, B., and VAN DER ZANDE, J. E. On abnormal milk and on the influence of an aseptic udder inflammation on the composition of the milk..... 513
